By seeing to it that our religious traditions are maintained and transmitted to our young not just because they are beautiful and enjoyable or because they radiate light and warmth but because the world needs the kind of people ^{and traditions} ~~the~~ produce if there ever is to be continued strength to the Myra's Women who in their wonderful Youth Villages are creating young men and women who are not only physically & mentally strong but who are imbued with the traditions of our fathers and ~~able to~~ ^{thus able to} provide the moral leadership which our generation and the ^{whole} world so badly need. Gent. I feel that each of us here may never shake our responsibilities and that each of us will ^{always} give all its financial, moral & physical support which we can in order that this great enterprise will ~~continue~~ ^{continue to grow and} go from strength to strength. Rabbi Elazar said in the name of Rabbi Hanneh The loss of the righteous is to lose to its generation much. It may be compared to a person who lost a pearl. Whether it is found it still retains the name pearl; it is only lost to its owners.

We ~~too~~ have lost our Pearl. She was a good woman whose many deeds of kindness and warm spirit will be remembered by us all forever. She had a quality about her which will never be lost. We'll all miss her but her achievements and spirit will always be remembered by all her friends and by our Mizrahi chapter. She was truly a Tzaddik a righteous person. May Zechu Sevachu May her memory always be for a blessing and may we always try to live up to her example.

O God Master of the Universe, who loves and cherishes each of us, Grant us all always the strength to overcome all of lives problems grant us the warmth and Consideration to help each other over two huddles. O' Sad that the work of Myrahi woman will to accomplish are ^{mutual} deeds of love & goodness.

EDUCATIONAL SKILLS BUT ALSO JEWISH VALUES TO THESE YOUNG PEOPLE IN AMIT WOMEN'S YOUTH VILLAGES, COMMUNITY CENTERS, AND EDUCATIONAL PROJECTS. WE NEED PEOPLE WHO ARE NOT

AN EDUCATION. WE MUST ALSO GIVE THEM VALUES. IT IS NOT ENOUGH JUST FOR THEM TO DEVELOP THEIR OWN ABILITIES, TO KNOW THAT "FOR ME THE WORLD WAS CREATED" BUT ALSO TO REALIZE THAT THEY HAVE TO SHARE THESE ABILITIES AND GIVE OF THEMSELVES BECAUSE WITHOUT STRONG

O Lord, Master of the Universe, Author of all history, Creator of all life, Inspirer of all generations who has chosen man to be his instrument in fulfilling creation and who has singled out the Jewish people to be the special bearers of His message, grant that as we all gather together here tonight at this ^{Amit} Mizrahi Women's Youth Aliyah Dinner, we will always realize that we owe a debt of great responsibility not only to ourselves and to our talents, but also to our Jewish values and to all the world's future generations by seeing to it that our religious traditions are maintained and transmitted to our young, not just because they're beautiful and enjoyable or because they radiate light and warmth, but because the world needs the kind of people our traditions produce if there ever is to be peace, justice and compassion. Grant, O Lord, continued strength to ~~the~~ Mizrach Women who, in their wonderful Youth Villages, are creating young men and women who are not only physically and mentally strong but who are ^{also} imbued with the traditions of our fathers and ^{who are} thus able to provide the moral, ^{and inspired} ~~courageous~~ leadership which our generation and the whole world so badly need. Grant, O Lord, that each of us here may never shirk our responsibilities and that each of us will always give all the financial, moral and physical support which we can in order that this great enterprise will continue to grow and to go from strength to strength. (Bless, O Lord, this wonderful ^{people} couple we are honoring tonight, ^{Mrs. Ida White & Jeanne to Joe Samuel} Mr. & Mrs. Alex Schwartz, who have done so much in our community to insure ^{that the Jews of our community are informed about all things} ~~the continuation of our religious~~ Jewish and who have urged ^{all to become more active in all Jewish causes by raising our youth branches high and} ~~traditions and who have worked so hard for Mizrahi and other~~ worthy Jewish institutions and organizations ^{by supporting} ~~throughout the years.~~) Grant ^{all the ladies here} ~~them~~ many, many more years of devoted service to our community and the strength, courage and inspiration to continue to make positive contributions to ^{OUR COMMUNITIES} ~~Judaism's~~ welfare. Grant, O Lord, that none of us will ever flag in Thy service and that each of us, by working for Mizrahi and all Jewish causes, will be drawn closer to each other and, thus, to Thee.
